St Barbara Successfully Defends Kingstream Litigation

Yesterday afternoon the Supreme Court of Western Australia handed down its decision in the Kingstream litigation.

The plaintiff in the litigation (the trustee of the Kingstream Steel Creditor's Trust) sought damages from St Barbara's wholly-owned subsidiary Zygot Ltd in relation to a dispute concerning the withdrawal of three mining leases applications in the Jack Hills and Mount Hale areas of mid-west Western Australia in 2001.

The Court found that the plaintiff had failed to establish liability against the Company or Zygot Ltd on any of its causes of action. The action was dismissed.
